

UNIVERSITÀ DEGLI STUDI DI TORINO

Rector's Decree n. 713 dated 2 March 2017

Subject: Open Call for PhD Positions 33rd cycle

Deadline 24 March 2017 at 12.00 p.m. (midday, Italian time)

THE RECTOR

Having considered the Law of 3 July 1998, no. 210 on PhD programmes;

Having considered the Ministerial Decree 18 June 2008, which stipulated an increase in the gross annual amount for PhD scholarships;

Having considered the law of 30 December 2010 no. 240;

Having considered the Ministerial Decree 45/2103 "Regulating procedures for accrediting universities and PhD courses and the criteria for implementing Doctorate courses by the credited Institutions";

Having considered the University Regulation on the functioning of Doctoral Schools and on PhD programmes for the University of Torino;

Having considered the Academic Senate resolution on 25 January 2017 about the assessment of qualifications of doctoral candidates holding or applying for international protection;

Having considered the Academic Senate resolution on 14 February 2017;

Having considered the Board of Governors resolution on 28 February 2017;

Having considered in case of revocation of the MIUR accreditation PhD Programmes will not be carried on Ministerial Decree 45/2013 and the Ministerial Circular of the Italian Ministry of Education (MIUR) n. 6363 of 11 March 2016, stating that;

DECREES

ART. 1 ESTABLISHMENT OF PhD PROGRAMMES

A competitive public examination procedure is hereby announced for admission to 33rd cycle PhD programmes. In case of revocation of the MIUR accreditation of one or more PhD programmes pursuant to ministerial decree 45/2013, those PhD programmes will be not carried on.

Available positions:

Ordinary positions (with scholarships, apprenticeship contracts positions, positions without financial support);

Reserved positions (with or without financial support, reserved to students with international degree; positions reserved to students selected within specific international mobility programmes or within specific agreements in which the University of Torino is involved, positions reserved to students who are recipients of scholarships granted by foreign institutions).

The number of positions with or without financial support available for each programme, topics of research projects, entry requirements, selection procedures and admissions criteria are outlined in each PhD Programme Information Sheet (Annex 4). The list of research projects can be updated up to one day before the assessment of qualifications so as to match the number of scholarships or positions that become available after the publication of this Call. Updates will be published on the University websites: <http://www.unito.it/ricerca/fare-ricerca-unito/dottorati-di-ricerca> (Italian) and <http://en.unito.it/research/phd/phd-programmes> (English). Applicants who already hold a PhD are only eligible and may only apply for positions without scholarships/financial support.

Competition results concerning the assessment of qualifications for those PhD programmes where a minimum threshold for admission to the following examination is foreseen, will be published on the University web site: <http://www.unito.it/ricerca/fare-ricerca-unito/dottorati-di-ricerca> and <http://en.unito.it/research/phd/phd-programmes> starting from 13 April 2017.

All additional scholarships and apprenticeship contracts 2016-2018 pursuant to art. 45 of Legislative Decree no. 81/2015 that are funded after the publication of this Call will be published on the University websites <http://www.unito.it/ricerca/fare-ricerca-unito/dottorati-di-ricerca> (Italian) and <http://en.unito.it/research/phd/phd-programmes>.

Dates and venues of entrance examinations will be published on the University websites: <http://www.unito.it/ricerca/fare-ricerca-unito/dottorati-di-ricerca> and <http://en.unito.it/research/phd/phd-programmes> (English) starting from 10 March 2017.

Candidates will not receive individual written communication about the dates and venues of the entrance examinations. Any changes to dates or venues will be published promptly on the above-mentioned websites.

Scholarships will be awarded according to the merit ranking of successful candidates.

ART. 2 REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

Candidates of any citizenship and age can submit an application provided that they meet any of the following requirements:

- A degree awarded by an Italian University prior to Ministerial Decree 509/99 (identified as L)
- A second level degree awarded by an Italian University (pursuant to Ministerial Decree 509/99 and Ministerial Decree 270/04, i.e. laurea magistrale (LM) or laurea specialistica (LS)).
- An international second cycle degree (Master's degree level) or other equivalent academic qualification awarded by a foreign university and granting access to PhD studies.

Candidates whose degrees (either from Italian or foreign universities) will be awarded after the deadline for application may apply on the condition that their qualification is obtained within 31 October 2017.

Candidates that are holders or applicants for international protection shall contact the PhD office (dottorati@unito.it, phdprogrammes@unito.it). The PhD office will start up the relative assessment procedure.

ART. 3 INTERNATIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

Higher education degrees awarded by foreign universities must be comparable to an Italian second level degree. The Examination Board will carry out a comparative assessment of qualifications to award the recognition of eligibility. The recognition of eligibility is awarded for the sole purpose of admission to the selection process.

Candidates must therefore upload the following documents during the on-line application procedure:

1. first and second cycle degree diplomas (Bachelor's and Master's Degree level according to the Bologna Process that allow admission to PhD level/3rd cycle studies in the home country), awarded by a recognized academic Institution, with final mark;
2. Transcripts of records of both 1st and 2nd cycle Degree (with complete grading);
3. Any other document useful for the recognition of eligibility (such as the Diploma Supplement or alternatively Dichiarazione di valore in loco issued respectively by the University or the Italian embassy/consulate in the country where the degree was issued);
4. Copy of an identity document.

Whenever official documents are in a language other than Italian, English or French they must be combined with a complete Italian translation and certified as true copies by either the issuing institution or the Italian embassy/consulate as per existing provisions.

Failure to provide the documentation listed in points 1) and 2) will result in the exclusion from the selection procedure.

Candidates who obtained a recognition of eligibility to enter PhD studies issued by an Italian University must submit the official declaration together with their application and documents listed in points 1), 2) and 4).

Results of the recognition of eligibility will not be communicated directly to the candidates. The results will be published exclusively on the University website: <http://en.unito.it/research/phd/phd-programmes>.

ART. 4 APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

Applications to PHD Programmes, one for each chosen Programme, must be submitted on-line only. Detailed guidelines are available on the University website: <http://en.unito.it/research/phd/phd-programmes> (English) and <http://www.unito.it/ricerca/fare-ricerca-unito/dottorati-di-ricerca> (Italian). After choosing the application language (Italian or English), candidates must select the PhD Programme to which they wish to apply, follow the guidelines to complete the registration and upload the APPLICATION FORM (Annex 3) and any other required materials.

The deadline for applications is 24 March 2017 at 12.00 p.m. (midday) Italian local time.

PhD Programmes may offer positions “reserved to candidates with international qualifications” and positions “reserved to students who are recipients of scholarships granted by foreign institutions” with special list (this information is provided in each PhD Programme Information Sheet – Annex 4). During the online application procedure, candidates who intend to compete for these positions must select the PhD programme labelled “RESERVED POSITIONS”. Whenever a PhD programme offers both reserved and non-reserved positions candidates must choose only one method of participation.

Each application must be submitted together with the following documents (in Portable Document Format - PDF).

1) APPLICATION FORM (annex 3). It is compulsory to fill in all the parts of the form. The information required must include:

- a) University degree which gives access to PhD programmes (L/LS/LM for Italian degrees, or Bsc/Ba AND Msc/MA or equivalent degrees for international qualifications).

b) Abstract of the Master's degree thesis of maximum 4000 characters unless otherwise specified in the PhD course form (Annex 4);

c) List of publications and other relevant documents;

Only degrees and qualifications already hold by the deadline of the present Call for applications (except for candidates admitted under condition) will be assessed.

The application form may be integrated with additional documentation within the deadline: 24 March 2017, H.12 pm (midday, Italian local time).

If candidates are holders of Laura Binazionale, they will participate as candidates with international qualifications.

2) For candidates applying under condition: official certificate or self-certified¹ declaration (using Annex 5) of transcripts of records with grades, weighted average and credits relating to their Master Degree (both Laurea Magistrale and Laurea Triennale).

3) Letters of references (if required by the PhD programme – Annex 4). During the application procedure candidates must specify the name of one or more referees, who will submit his/her reference through the online procedure. The upload must be completed within the application deadline 24 March 2017.

4) Any other document specifically listed in the PhD Programme Information sheet (Annex 4).

Once the on-line application process is complete, the system will generate the MAV form (Request for Payment) for the compulsory payment of the € 50.00 fee for each submitted application (a 1,50 Euro commission for the MAV service is charged for each payment).

Payment is due by 24 March 2017, without exception. Candidates who do not pay the application fee will be excluded from the competition. The application fee is not refundable.

Candidates with international qualifications are exempted from paying the application fee.

Candidates are kindly invited to submit their application well in advance before the deadline.

¹ Regulations on self-certified documents are applicable to Italian, EU and non-EU nationals regularly residing in Italy only for data which can be attested or certified by Italian public authorities. Candidates with international qualifications must therefore submit original or certified true copies as set out in art. 3 of the Call.

Candidates are responsible for verifying the correct completion of the online procedure. Complaints pertaining to any system malfunctioning due to website traffic overload close to deadline will not be accepted.

ART. 5 ENTRANCE EXAM

The entrance exam, aimed at ascertaining the candidate's attitude to scientific research, will be carried out as outlined in each PhD Programme Information Sheet (Annex 4).

Each candidate is ranked by the Examining Board using 100 points. The points awarded for each test, the criteria for attributing them and the threshold scores to pass to the next phase of the selection are listed in each PhD Programme Information Sheet. To assess international qualifications, the Examining Board will adopt equivalent criteria. During the entrance examination, the Board may test the foreign language skills specified by the candidate in the application form.

Interviews may be conducted online, upon a duly reasoned request approved by the Examination Board (except as specified in each PhD Programme Information Sheet - Annex 4). The request must be submitted to Sezione Dottorati di Ricerca – Direzione Ricerca e Terza Missione (fax 0116704380; e-mail dottorati@unito.it) no later than 5 days before the interview takes place.

ART. 6 EXAMINATION BOARD

The examination Board is formed according to the University Regulations on the organisation of PhD Schools and Programmes of the University of Torino.

The composition of the Board will be published on the University websites after the Call is closed:

<http://www.unito.it/ricerca/fare-ricerca-unito/dottorati-di-ricerca>

<http://en.unito.it/research/phd/phd-programmes>

ART. 7 LIST OF SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATES

The final merit ranking lists of successful candidates will be published on the University websites:

<http://www.unito.it/ricerca/fare-ricerca-unito/dottorati-di-ricerca> and <http://en.unito.it/research/phd/phd-programmes> starting from 22nd May 2017.

This publication is the sole official communication. Candidates will not receive any personal communication concerning the lists of successful candidates.

Candidates who are successful in more than one selection, can choose only one PhD position.

Candidates will be admitted to PhD Programmes according to the order of the final list of successful candidates (the final merit ranking list results from the sum of all the scores obtained by candidates in each entry examination) until all available positions for the PhD programme have been filled. Should successful candidates withdraw, their positions shall be assigned to qualified candidates according to the order of the final merit ranking list.

Scholarships available for each PhD programme are awarded according to the order in the final merit ranking list drawn up by the Examination Board.

Scholarships for candidates who have obtained the same score in the ranking will be awarded by taking into account their respective financial situations, pursuant to D.P.C.M. 9/04/2001. Positions without scholarship will be assigned to the youngest candidate, pursuant to Article 3 of Law N. 127 dated 15/05/1997.

ART. 8 ENROLMENT PROCEDURE FOR CANDIDATES WHO APPLIED FOR RESERVED POSITIONS.

Successful candidates must confirm their enrolment through the same on-line procedure used for registration within 15 days from the publication of publication of final merit ranking list. Missing the deadline will result in exclusion from the PhD programme.

Within 30 days from the publication of final merit ranking list, candidates must contact the PhD Office via email (dottorati@unito.it) to complete their enrolment. Candidates must provide the following materials:

1. a passport photograph, signed on the back;
2. a photocopy of their identity document/passport;
3. a photocopy of their Italian Tax Code (Codice Fiscale);
4. declaration of recognition of eligibility for successful candidates who have not applied for the process of recognition by the Examination Board when entering the competition (as per art.3);
5. original or certified copies of first and second cycle Degrees (Bachelor's and Master's Degree);
6. original or certified copies of Bachelor's and Master's transcripts;
7. original or certified copies of the "Dichiarazione di valore in loco" or Diploma Supplement (as per art. 3, point 3).

8. FORM A "Enrolment form" (to be downloaded by the web site);
9. FORM B with bank account details (applicable only for positions with scholarship; this form can be downloaded from the web site)
10. FORM C "Declaration about job activities"(to be downloaded by the web site)

Starting from 4 September 2017, candidates will be required to provide the PhD office with receipt of payment of tuition fees for admission to PhD Programmes as set out in the University Regulation of Taxes and Contribution (<http://en.unito.it/studying-unito/tuition-fees>) for the payment please use the specific form provided by the on-line enrolment procedure). Foreign students are exempt from this tax.

Missing the deadline will result in exclusion from the PhD programme.

Candidates who applied under condition must communicate the date of the award of their qualification within 31 October 2016 by sending Annex 2 of this document to the PhD Office by email (dottorati@unito.it).

Candidates holding the requirements to cover positions reserved to those who passed a competitive selection within the framework of international mobility Programmes to which the University of Torino participates or positions announced within the framework of specific agreements that the University of Torino signed in order to improve the international cooperation (provided that such positions are offered by PhD Programmes), may enrol into the PhD Programme, upon admission by the PhD Teaching Board, by contacting the Sezione formazione alla ricerca – (dottorati@unito.it).

ART. 9 ENROLMENT PROCEDURE FOR CANDIDATES WHO APPLIED FOR ORDINARY POSITIONS

- 7) FORM C "Declaration of Declaration about job activities"(to be downloaded by the web site)

Missing the deadline will result in exclusion from the PhD programme.

Positions without financial support: students must confirm their enrolment within 5 days from the publication of final merit ranking list. They must then submit the documents listed above in points 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and the receipt of the tax payment to the Direzione Ricerca e Terza Missione, Sezione Dottorati di Ricerca – Via Bogino, 9 - 10123 Torino (opening hours specified in art. 4):

Successful candidates who fail to send the above documents within 15 working days of online acceptance will forfeit their right to enrol.

Starting from 4 September 2017, candidates, both with or without scholarships will be required to provide the PhD office with receipt of payment of tuition fees for admission to the first year of PhD Programmes as set out in the University Regulation of Taxes and Contribution (<http://en.unito.it/studying-unito/tuition-fees>) for the payment please use the specific form provided by the on-line enrolment procedure). Foreign students are exempt from this tax.

Missing the deadline will result in exclusion from the PhD programme

Candidates who applied under condition must communicate the date of the award of their qualification within 31 October 2016 by sending Annex 2 of this document to the PhD Office by email (dottorati@unito.it).

ART. 10 SCHOLARSHIPS: GENERAL CONDITIONS

The annual amount of the PhD scholarship is € 13.638,47, subject to modification in the event of a change in the law. This sum is subject to separate I.N.P.S. welfare contributions (gestione separata).

The scholarship is confirmed on a yearly basis, provided that the PhD student has completed the required programme activities during the year and that the Academic board admits them to the successive year of the PhD.

The scholarship is paid monthly in arrears. The amount of the scholarship is increased for any period of activity abroad by 50%, for a total period that must not exceed half of the duration of the PhD course. Scholarships funded by an external body and those that do not provide such benefits are not eligible for this increase.

Candidates with scholarships funded by external bodies must become acquainted with the specific conditions applicable to their scholarship as set out in the agreement with the funding body.

Scholarships awarded by the University of Torino cannot be combined with any other kind of scholarship, except for those awarded by national and international institutions to support PhD students' training periods abroad.

Scholarships awarded by the University of Torino cannot be combined with a research fellowship (assegno di ricerca). Individuals who have benefitted from a previous PhD scholarship (entirely or in part) cannot be awarded a second PhD scholarship, unless the amount received for the previous scholarship has been returned. Scholarships are not compatible with specialist training contracts, in accordance with Legislative Decree N. 368 dated August 17th 1999 and with apprenticeship contracts in accordance with Legislative Decree N. 167/2011 Article 5.

ART. 11 RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF PHD STUDENTS

Admission to PhD programmes obliges PhD students to full time attendance of the PhD programme.

PhD students must regularly attend courses and carry out all research and study activities assigned to them by the relevant Department of the University, according to the procedures set out by the academic board of the PhD programme.

PhD students may carry out tutorial activities for undergraduate and postgraduate students, as well as supplementary teaching activities as part of their training project; these activities are not eligible for an increase of scholarship. All activities must be previously authorised by the Academic Board for a maximum of forty hours per academic year. The limit is not applicable after the third year of the PhD Programme.

PhD students in medicine may participate in clinical assistance activities.

Regarding attendance of PhD courses and achievement of the PhD qualification, the University Regulations on PhD Schools and PhD programmes of the University of Torino shall apply.

ART. 12 INCOMPATIBILITY

Registration in a PhD Programme is incompatible with enrolment in other undergraduate and postgraduate degrees, Italian University master courses, other PhD Programmes and specialised courses organised by private institutions pursuant to art. 17, paragraph 96, Law 127/1997.

Candidates registered in any of the above mentioned courses must comply with the PhD enrolment requirements within 15 days from enrolment, under penalty of exclusion from PhD programme.

The relevant incompatibility rules are set out in articles 27 and 28 of the University Regulations on PhD Schools and Programmes of the University of Torino.

ART. 13 CODE OF ETHICS

PhD students must comply with the Code of Ethics of the University Community issued by the University of Torino with Rectoral Decree no. 3890 of 21 June 2012, pursuant to art. 2, paragraph 4 of Law no. 240 of 30 December 2010.

The Code of Ethics of the University community is published on the website:
<http://www.unito.it/ateneo/statuto-e-regolamenti/codici-di-comportamento>

14 COLLECTING QUALIFICATIONS AND PUBLICATIONS

In the case of withdrawal or exclusion from the PhD programme, candidates can collect any original copy of their qualifications and/or publications they may have submitted when enrolling. The University will not cover the cost of this service.

ART. 15 PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA AND RIGHT OF ACCESS

Pursuant to art. 13 of Legislative Decree 196/2003, candidates are hereby informed that their personal data shall be collected and processed in an automated database by the University of Torino to be used in the selection procedure and enrolment of successful PhD students. The data provided by candidates will also be used in the performance of the University's institutional functions, within the limits established by the law and regulations and in observance of the principles of transparency, correctness, confidentiality and necessity.

Pursuant to art. 4, letter a) of Legislative Decree 196/2003, "processing" means all operations or series of operations carried out with or without the help of electronic instruments concerning obtaining, recording, holding, organisation, adaptation, alteration, retrieval, consultation, use, disclosure by transmission, dissemination or otherwise making available, alignment, combination, blocking, erasure or destruction of the information or data, even when not filed in a database.

The collected data may be shared with other public and private subjects according to the procedures and within the limits established by the above-mentioned Legislative Decree and the Regulation for implementing the "Code on personal data protection" of the University of Torino.

The data requested must be supplied for the evaluation process. If the data is not supplied, the candidate will be excluded from the selection procedure. Under art. 7 of Legislative Decree 196/2003 and amendments, candidates have the right to access the data concerning them, as well as some complementary rights including the right to amend, update, complete or delete erroneous or incomplete data, or data gathered without compliance to current legislation, and the right to oppose the use of the data for legitimate reasons.

These rights may be enforced against the Rector of the University of Torino, who is the Data Controller.

The Director of the Department of Research and International Relations of the University of Torino is responsible for the processing of personal data and the data access procedure.

ART. 16 REFERENCE TO THE REGULATIONS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF TORINO -

For all other terms and regulations not expressly set out in this Call, the University Regulations on PhD Schools and programmes of the University of Torino shall apply.

This call for applications is available in this English translation. The translation is not binding for legal purposes. In the event of dispute or disagreements, the Italian version of this Call prevails.
